LIVELY DEBATE IN THE LOWER HOUSE

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, is Sarcastic as to Crowninshield.

THE PHILIPPINE ATROCITIES

This and Sampson-Schley Incident Occupied Great Attention in the House. Democratic Senators Refuse to Specify Time to Vote on It.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The House had another lively day of debate to-day, Philippine atroctites and the Schley case coming in for considerable attention. The naval appropriation bill continued to be under consideration, but it received little attention. Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, and Mr. Hep-burn, of Iowa, brought on the discussion by criticising the extent to which naval officers secured comfortable berths

This gave Mr. Williams, of Mississippl, opportunity to make a very sarcastic speech at the expense of Admiral Crowninshield, during which he read a peem describing the late head of the Bureau of Newtonian and The Country Tray The of Navigation as "The Greatest Tar That Vver Stayed Ashore."

In more serious vein Mr. Williams referred to the Sampson-Schley controver-sy. Whatever the official conclusion might be the American people had come to the conclusion, Mr. Williams said, that Admiral Schley had had something to do with the battle of Santiago. And yet it had happened that Historian Maclay had written a history and submitted it to the great naval authority, Crownin-shield, declaring that Schley had nothing to do with the victory, HURLED IT BACK.

Reverting to Mr. Grow's remarks yes-terday, comparing the Civil War condi-tions with those in the Philippines, Mr. Williams declared that as an American he hurled back the comparison. Had we reached the stage when the army was greater than the nation? asked Mr. Wil-greater than the nation? asked Mr. Williams; when criminals in the army cannot be held up to execration?

Speaking for the Committee on Rules, Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, said the Maclay-Crowinshield resolution had not been reported, as it would have been "mere sound and fury" after Admiral Schley's request for a court of inquiry had been complied with, and the subject had been exhaustively considered by a naval court and then reviewed by the President.

Mr. Cochran, of Missouri, and Mr. Lan-and then reviewed by the Fresident.

Mr. Cochran, of Missouri, and Mr. Landis, of Indiana, discussed the resolutions adopted by Union veterans of Indiana, comparing the copperheads of the present day, who criticised the army in the Philippines, with the copperheads of 1861-

Rising to a question of personal privilege. Mr. Sims, of Tennessee, resented a remark made by Mr. Jenkins, of Wiscontin, several days ago, that he (Sims) was only consistent "when he votes for the Methodist Church to rob the treasthe suggestion that the claim was un-

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—An effort was made by Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, in the Senate to-day to induce the minority to fix a time when a vote right be taken on the Philippine govern-ment bill, but Mr. Dubois, of Indiana, peaking for the Democratic side, did not acsire to specify a fate for the vote. Assurances were given that the minority was not seeking for delay, but wished simply that discussion should be exhausted before the vote was taken.

Mr. McLaurin, of Mississippi, concluded his speech begun vesterday, in opposi-

his speech, begun yesterday, in opposi tion to the present Philippine policy of the government, which he maintained was responsible for all the ills that had come to the United States in those islands.

DAY IN POLICE COURT.

Only Prisoner on a Short Was Discharged by the Justice. Only one prisoner, a negro woman, graced the pen in Police Court yesterday, after the criminal session, and, through pity for her, Justice Crutchfield ordered that she be released. The result was that for the first time in a week or so there was no prisoner to go to the city jail. Two small boys who fought sometimes were the cause of Mrs. Frank Diggs appearing in Police Court. It was alleged that she had slapped a small boy who offended her son. She denied hav-ing done so, and told of the troubles which have existed for some time be tween her son and the other boy. The matter was finally allowed to go over until to-day for final adjustment. Alfred Perkins, accused of beating Namie Jefferson, was discharged.

Etta Allen and Alice Shaw fought. It cost Etta $2.50 and Alice is to come up

Lee Camp's Weekly Meeting.

Lee Camp held their regular meeting last night. Commander Gervas Storrs presiding. The members who went to Norfolk on Thursday made a splendid report of the reception accorded them.

A letter was received from Colonel William H. Knauss, an ex-Federal soldier, stating that on June 14th there will be unveiled at Camp Chase, O., a bronze statue of a Confederate soldier, a tribute of Federal and Confederate soldiers. Lee Camp sent a donation of $10 to Colonel Knauss to aid in the cost of this monument.

Meeting Postponed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 16.—There was to have been a meeting of the directors of the Jamestown Exposition Company held in this city last evening, but at the last moment the session was adjourned over until a later date.

Post A's Meeting. There will be a meeting of Post A of the Traveiers' Protective Association to-night at $30 o'clock at the headquarters at Third and Main Streets, when very important matters will come up for dis-cussion. There is considerable interest being manifested in the National Associa-tion Convention, which meets this year at Portland, Ore., June 3d. There will be several members of Post A who will make the cross-continent trip.

DR. CURRY AND PARTY.

Letters to Friends Here Tell of Good Times in Madrid.

Dr. J. L. M. Curry and members of his party now at the Court of the King of Spain have written to friends here of their voyage over and their stay in Paris. Their letters teemed with accounts of the good times they are naving and the attention they are receiving from august personages.

Mrs. Curry was before her marriage Miss Mary Thomas, of this city. She is a daughter of the late James Thomas, Jr. one of the wealthiest men of Richmond in his day. Marquis Villoloba, who is Dr. Curry's special escort in Madrid, was once a guest'at the Thomas home of this city. That was while he was secretary of the Spanish legation at Washington.

Committee on Confession of Faith Makes Its Report.

Overtures on This Question Will Be Sent Down to the Presbyterians

for Consideration and

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK. May 16.-The special committee of the Northern Presbyterian General Assembly on the Revision of the Confession of Faith, after a year or more of work, this morning made a re port to that body in session in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City. This report is twofold in accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly. "A Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith" is submitted for the con sideration of the Assembly. In addition certain additional statements to the present Confession of Faith are submitted and recommended.

The report comes with the weight and authority of a committee among whom are numbered many of the most prominent men in the Northern Presbyterian Church, among them Dr. C. H. Winton, the last moderator; Dr. Van Dyke, the present moderator, and such well known learners or John M. Harlan and John W. and recommended. aymen as John M. Harlan and John W.

Foster.

The following is the "Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith" submitted:

GOB AND REVELATION.

Article I. Of God. We believe in the ever-living God, who is a Spirit, and the Father of our spirits; infinite, eternal and unchangeable in His being and perfections; the Lord Almighty, most just in all His ways, most glorious in hollness, unsearchable in wisdom and plenteous in mercy, full of love and compassion, and abundant in goodness and truth. We worship Him, Father, Son and Hold Spirworship Him. Father, Son and Hold Spirit, three persons in one Godhead, and in substance and equal in power and glory.

Article II. Of Revelation. We believe Article II. Of Revelation. We believe that God is revealed in nature, in history and in the heart of man; that He has made gracious and clearer revelations of Himself to men of God who spoke as they were moved by the Hold Spirit; and that Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, is the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person. We gratefully receive the Hold Scriptures, given by inspiration, to be the faithful received God's gracious revelations and the sure witness to Christ, as the word of God, the only infallible rule of fatth and life.

ON PREDESTINATION. Article III. Of the Etternal Purpose. We loving purpose of Gcd embraces all events olving purpose of God embraces all events so that while the freedom of man is not taken away nor is God the author of sin. taken away nor is God the author of sni, yet in His Providence He makes all things work together in the fulfilment of His sovereign design and the manifestation of His glory; wherefore, humbly acknowledging the mystery of this truth, we trust in His protecting care to set our hearts to do His will.

Article IV—Of the Creation. We believe that God is the creator, upholder, and governor of all things; that He is above all His works and in them all;

above all His works and in them all; and that He made man in His own image, meet for fellowship with Him. free and able to choose between good and evil, and forever responsible to his Maker and Lord.

Article V.-Of the Sin of Man. believe that our first parents, being tempted, chose cyll, and so fell away from God and came under the power of sin, the penalty of which is eternal death; and we confess that, by reason of this disobedience, we and all men are born with a sinful nature, that we have broken God's law, and no man can be saved by His Grace.

Article VI—Of the Grace of God. We Article VI—Or the Grace of God. We believe that God, out of His great love for the world, has given His only begetten Son to be the Saviour of sinners, and in the Gospel freely offers His all-sufficient salvation to all men. And we praise Him for the unspeakable grace wherein He has provided a way of eternal life for all mankind. Article VII—Of Election. We believe that God, from the beginning, in His own good pleasure, gave to His Son a people, an innumerable multitude, chosen in Christ unto holiness, service and salva-Christ unto hollness, service and salva-tion: we believe that all who come to years of discretion can receive this sal-vation only through faith and repent-ance: and we believe that all who die in infancy, and all others given by the Father to the Son who are beyond the reach of the outward means of grace, are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit, who works when and where and how He pleases. CHRIST THE MEDIATOR. Article VIII.—Of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

We believe in and confess the Lord Jesus Christ, the only Mediator between God and man, who being the Eternal Son of God, for us men and for our salvation became truly man, being conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary, without sin; unto us He has re-Many, without sin; unto us He has revealed the Father, by His Word and Spirit making known the perfect will of God; for us He fulfilled all righteousness and satisfied eternal justice, offering Himself a perfect sacrifice upon the cross to take away the sin of the world; for as He rose from the dead and ascended into heaven, where He ever intercedes for us, in oor hearts, joined to Mim by faith, He abides forever as the

VISIBLE AND INVISIBLE.
Article XIV. Of the Church and the acraments. We believe in the Holy Sacraments. We believe in the Holy Catholic Church and sacraments. Christ is the only head. We believe that the Church Invisible consists of all the redeemed, and that the Church Visible embraces all who profess the true religion together with their children. We receive to our communion all who confess and obey Christ as their divine Lord and Saviour, and we hold fellowship with all believers in Him.

We receive the sacraments of baptism Sacraments.

We receive the sacraments of baptism We receive the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper, alone divinely established and committed to the Church together with the word, as means of grace; made effectual only by the Holy Spirit, and always to be used by Christians with prayer and praise to God.

Article XV. Of the Last Judgment. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ will come again in glorious majesty to judge the world and to make a final separation between the righteous and the separation between the righteous and the wicked. The wicked shall receive the eternal reward of their sins, and the Lord will manifest the glory of His mercy in the salvation of His people and their entrance upon the full enjoyment of eternal life.

Article XVI. Of Christian Service and the Final Triumph. We believe that it is our duty, as servants and friends of Christ, to do good unto all men, to main-Christ, to do good unto all men, to maintain the public and private worship of God, to hallow the Lord's Day, to preserve the sanctity of the family, to uphold the just authority of the State, and so to live in all honesty, purity and charity, that our lives shall testify of Christ, We joyfully receive the word of Christ, bidding His people go into all the world and make disciples of all nations, and declare unto them that God was in Christ, reconciling the world until Himself, and that He will have all men to self, and that He will have all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. We confidently trust that by His power and grace all His enemies and ours shall be finally overcome, and the kingdoms of this world shall be made the kingdom of the confidence of our form and of His the kingdom of our God and of His Christ.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS.

Apart from this "Brief Statement." which is to be separate from and in no sense to interfere with the present "Confession of Faith," certain supplementary statements to be added to the Confession are recommended by the committee. The committee says concerning the Brie Statement, that it is prepared "with the view to its being employed to give infor-mation and a better understanding of our doctrinal beliefs, and not with a view to its becoming a substitute for, or an alternative of, our Confession of Faith." DEATH IN INFANCY.

Additional statements are recommendmen, missions and Holy Spirit, in the form of new chapters to be added to the Confession; also certain textual modifica tions. The committee proposes the following overtures: "Shall the following declaratory statement be adopted as to Chapter X, sec-tion 3, of the Confession of Faith?" "With reference to Chapter X, section 3, of the Confession of Faith, that it is 3, of the Confession of Faith, that if is not to be regarded as teaching that any who die in infancy are lost. We believe that all dying in infancy are included in the election of grace, and are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit, who works when and where and how He pleases." This overture or question addressed to the Presbyteries will be sent down to them by the General Assembly for consideration and reply. Upon the nature of these replies the next General Assembly will base its action in this matter.

ANOTHER BLOW AT STATES' RIGHTS

Attorney-General Holds That Virginia Harbor Commissioners Have Nothing to Do With It.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—Judge-Advocate General Lemly has received an opinion by the Attorney-General to the effect that the plans for the navyyard improvements do not require the approval of Virginia Harbor Line Commissioners as they contend. sioners, as they contend.

sioners, as they contend.

The opinion is of far-reaching importance, applying to nearly all cities where there are navyyards or stations, and constitutes another blow to the States' rights doctrine. In this case it was found necessary to extend the coffer dam of the new granite dry dock, at the entrance of new grante dry dock, at the entraines of the dock, by 280 feet inside the line es-tablished by the State Board of Harbor Commissioners. Although the contem-plated improvement was to be on ground belonging to the United States. Virginia having relinquished jurisdiction, the board insisted that the plans for the ime and threatened the arrest of Admirat Cotton, the commandant of the yard, upon his refusal to comply. They did this under a State law. The Attorney-General's holding was, in effect, that Congress having been clothed with the right to maintain a navy, a necessary part of the power was the maintenance of navyyards, while, as to the harbor itself, there was no question that the au-thority of the United States over it was paramount
